

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. CR 05-1162

NOT DESIGNATED FOR PUBLICATION

Opinion Delivered June 1, 2006

STEVEN EARL JORDAN
Appellant

PRO SE MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF TIME TO FILE BRIEF [CIRCUIT
COURT OF GRANT COUNTY, 2003-
79-1, HON. CHRIS E. WILLIAMS,
JUDGE]

v.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
Appellee

MOTION GRANTED

PER CURIAM

Steven Earl Jordan was found guilty by a jury of residential burglary and theft of property. He was sentenced to an aggregate term of 360 months' imprisonment. The Arkansas Court of Appeals affirmed. Jordan v. State, CACR 04-866 (Ark. App. May 11, 2005). Subsequently, appellant timely filed a petition in the trial court for postconviction relief pursuant to Ark. R. Crim. P. 37.1. The trial court dismissed the petition. No appeal was taken, and appellant filed a motion for belated appeal with this court contending that he did not timely receive a copy of the court's order. The motion was granted, and the appeal was lodged in this court. Jordan v. State, CR 05-1162 (Ark. November 17, 2005) (per curiam). We have also previously granted appellant's motion for extension of time to file his brief and granted a writ of certiorari to supplement the record. Jordan v. State, CR 05-1162 (Ark. January 19, 2006) (per curiam); Jordan v. State, CR 05-1162 (Ark. March 2, 2006) (per curiam).

Now before us is appellant's pro se motion for extension of time to file his brief. Citing his placement in administrative segregation and a quarantine due to chicken pox at the facility where appellant is housed, he now requests a second extension of time to file the brief. The motion is granted. The time to file the appellant's brief is extended to thirty days from the date of this opinion.

Motion granted.
